Upmarket Estate bordering the Kruger National Park

It's a lifestyle many people dream of. Lions roaring in the distance, the laugh of the hyena or the snorting of the hippos in the river right in front of your property as you relax around your boma. Afternoons spent watching a herd of elephants from your deck as they playfully bathe in the river, followed by the clouds of dust they throw on their backs. Savor the tranquility of the mornings, sipping a cup of coffee while being serenaded by the harmonious chorus of bushveld birds.

For a privileged few, this isn't only a dream, it's the reality of owning property overlooking and bordering the iconic Kruger National Park. ...
